Lots of movement both ways in the table in week two and we begin with The Border Terrier taking the win at home versus Tynemouth Club with Gavin Hosie showing good early form with another maximum and John Walker taking out a 110 for the Terrier. Frankie Fascoine also reminding us he can still take the checkouts out for the visitors.

Both The Grey Horse and Red Lion needed to bounce back from last weeks results and a very tight match ensued with the home side taking the last three singles points to victory however the improvement shown from both sides should see them moving up the table in the weeks to come. The Blue Bell can no longer be regarded as the new boys when they are capable of taking eight points on the road and this excellent result for them means The Fat Ox open with a defeat in their first home game in the new venue.

Whitley Lodge A move up courtesy of a good win at home to the Seahorse A and the cards showed both teams now have access to their stronger squads so expect them to settle quickly. An absolute cracker of a match took place as The Seahorse B won at home against the Lodge B lads. Superb scoring throughout with Alan Davie in top form and reported "TV standard Darts" in the Alan Davie-Chris Matthews singles match bodes well for last years champs to meet the challenge ahead. It takes two side to make a great game and the Lodge B have to be congratulated for taking it to them.

Also rising to the challenge are The Victoria who carried on last weeks form to take eight points away from Marden Club and move into second spot. A combination of good team and individual performances signals they are already settled into the season. Marden now have to dust themselves off and bounce back next week.

Last up this week the local derby at Hillheads saw The Phoenix Tap A go straight to the top of the table on the back of a full house haul of points against there struggling stablemates The Phoenix Tap B. Only two points dropped from a possible twenty four so far but will they be able to sustain it when they host The Grey Horse next week.
